

MEETING INTERNAZIONALE ANTIRAZZISTA

XXIV EDIZIONE

12-15 SETTEMBRE
PARCO DELLA CECINELLA
CECINA MARE

An edition, that of 2018, renewed in the dates, in the duration and in the modalities, but with a solid and firm point: the desire to deepen the themes linked to migrations, anti-racism and reception policies, in a context deeply changed from the political, social, historical and cultural point of views.

We will continue to talk and discuss with experts, scholars, journalists and local administrators from all over Europe to better understand our world, we will analyze the changes that are going through our societies, to understand the new needs and how to use the tools we have to contribute to strengthen and, in many cases, to re-create a sense of solidarity in people.

We will continue to talk about rights and citizenship and indeed, we will talk about it with even more strength, because they are the basis on which to build the society we want.

We will talk about fairness and acceptance, about secularism and commitment.

We will try to give, as always, our contribution to another world, more equitable and more free, more open and dialoguing, more just and welcoming.

The International Anti-Racism Meeting is waiting for you in Cecina, at the Cecinella Park - free admission.

Trainings, meetings, workshops, music and shows every day.
